The flesh is not eradicated by the Spirit, rather, circumvented as we learn to follow the Spirit. The flesh is powerless to resist sin's temptations; for that we need the power of the Holy Spirit (Romans 7:7-25). Paul calls on us to "set our minds" on the things of the Spirit, rather than the things of the flesh (Romans 8:5; Isaiah 26:3).

Flesh and Spirit is a brilliantly executed first person narrative by Valen, an illiterate man who is forever running away from his parentage and inadequacies. The thing that struck me most about these two books are the incredibly rounded individuals in an amazingly (but not superfluously) detailed world.
